Colorado Dawn: A Clean Western Romance (Majestic Mountain Ranch Romances, Book 4) Zoe Matthews
Stella enjoyed her job as a chef in a very prestigious restaurant in Los Angeles. But when she received the news that her father had passed away, she quit her job and moved back to the family ranch in Colorado in order to help them convert the cattle ranch into a dude ranch.

A few days before the grand opening, she again received word that her best friend had died. Her friend had asked her to take care of her young daughter.

Stella spends the next few weeks learning how to be a mother to a sad little girl, while getting to know Cade, a man who had been hired to care for the small herd of cattle that was kept around for the guests enjoyment. But she also needed to learn to forgive herself for some preconceived ideas that she had caused her mother's death. Will Stella be able to work through her feelings about her parent's deaths, while at the same time accept the love of a good man?

Majestic Mountain Ranch Romances are a collection of clean western inspirational westerns. Each book is a complete story of each of the Collingsworth siblings.
