ANGELS and DEMONS: Book One Melody John
Kaylee is desperate to trade in her dull life working in a bookshop for something more exciting. She gets her wish when a boy staggers in through the doors of her shop, chased by something dark and menacing. This heralds the beginning of the end of her ordinary life and plunges her into a world of darkness and demons, of angels and corruption. Even those closest to her are not as they seem and danger lurks in every shadow. Can she survive this new life she find herself in?

Peter is on the run, for his life and his soul. Demons pursue him and it seems to be pure luck that he stumbles into the protection of a demon hunter. But Peter carries a dark secret which, if discovered, could prompt his new protectors to cast him out to the mercy of the demons. But he has a plan. All he needs is time and the trust of those around him, but will Kaylee still believe in him when she knows the truth?
