And then there were two... Thirtysomething Barry Trinsic never expected to be raising a two-year-old on his own. And happy, quirky Meghan certainly didn't expect to be growing up in America instead of China. Nine months after the tragic (and mysterious) loss of his wife, Barry begins to rebuild his love life. Of course, his little "ladybug" has her own ideas about whom he should date. Uplifting and rowdy, Don't Kiss With Your Mouth Full: A Ladybug Raises Her Daddy is a warm, funny novel about single parenting, international adoption, and the perils of romantic fraternization between Generation X and Millennials.
