Gregory Teak and the Ghost Light (Sandman Dreamwalker) (Volume 1) Sean Briggs
Every family has its secrets, handed down from one generation to the next. Gregory Teak has an inheritance of more than secrets: he has a curse. A extraordinary discovery in the sands of Egypt nearly 100 years ago has shaped the fate of Gregory's family and a small town in Colorado. Now, decades of strange events have come to a head and that head rests on the shoulders of young Gregory. Orphaned and living in a haunted theater, a magical ring is Greg's only key to unraveling his past and deciphering the hints to his future before the darkness that lurks in the shadows swallow him. Are Greg's dreams an entrance to another time and space or are they just the products of an overworked imagination? And why are the visitors who come in the night intent on murder? Can a light in the ages old darkness bring peace to a community of restless ghosts? Gregory Teak and the Ghost Light.
