JADE T. STEVENS (Book I of the Romanceville Suite Series) Maggie Jones
Jade T. Stevens is a coming of age romantic story that takes place in the late nineteen seventies. Jade, a look-alike Marilyn Monroe with green eyes falls in love with Bryan, who bears a striking resemblance to Elvis Presley.
Bryan, the new handsome student, is a serious, talented musician that leads a band.

Spontaneous, outgoing, and bubbly Jade ends up joining Bryan’s band, which causes friction and jealousy between her and other female bandmates. Immediately, the band members notice the mutual-attraction between Jade and Bryan during band rehearsals, whenever they would play certain songs.

The two attractive teens have a lot in common, especially music, but Jade wants to take music, and the relationship with Bryan to another level. Bryan coming from a Christian family doesn't believe in sex before marriage, so therefore, Bryan hesitates and holds back, when it comes to Jade's sexual advances.

Their relationship heats up, and they submit to feelings, temptation, desire, and passion!

Jade will keep you wondering, what will she do next?

This adventure continues.
