Envisioning the Past: Archaeology an the Image

Envisioning the Past: Archaeology an the Image
Envisioning the Past: Archaeology and the Image is a groundbreaking collection of original essays that brings together archaeologists, art historians and anthropologists to provide new perspectives on the construction of knowledge concerning the antiquity of man.

- Covers a wide variety of time periods and topics, from the Renaissance and the 18th century to the engravings, photography, and virtual realities of today

- Questions what we can learn from considering the use of images in the past and present that might guide our responsible use of them in the future

- Available within the prestigious New Interventions in Art History series, published in connection with the Association of Art Historians.
