No Other Choice: A Pride and Prejudice Novella (Choices) (Volume 2) Leenie Brown
A Pride and Prejudice Novella Book Two of the Choices Series Mary Bennet has never been the center of attention and rarely the object of any man's affections, but that is about to change. Shortly after Darcy and Elizabeth's wedding, Mary travels to London to prepare for the season, a season she is determined to finish with either a husband or a glorious tale to tell, even if it means learning to tolerate Lord Rycroft. Lord Samuel Rycroft is not pleased to learn he will be chaperoning his mother and her charge for the season, especially when that charge is Mary Bennet, a young lady whom he has an unfortunate tendency to insult. But when his heart becomes involved, what was to be an arduous task of endurance becomes a quest to earn her approval and acceptance, even if it means giving her no other choice. Note: Story is approximately 37,000 words in length. The book contains several samples of work from Leenie Brown, Zoe Burton, Rose Fairbanks and April Floyd at the end.
