The Art of Making a Pile and Living Like a King: 9 Practical Strategies for Ordinary People Alistair Friend, Ace Wilde
This is a distillation of successfully applied knowledge in creating wealth, starting from an ordinary base. With actual techniques successfully applied by the author and a clear focus on the important factors to remember in applying them, this is a book genuinely written to share useful knowledge, understanding and strategies on the subject of wealth creation for ordinary people. Too many wealth books are full of pep-talks but no practical substance. Written in an easy-to-read style and laced with humorous quips by street-poet Ace Wilde, it also touches on deeper questions about what wealth actually is and how we can live well and to our fullest. Written by the author for his children, it is a work of sincerity, conviction and the proven fruit of many years experience and ultimately, success.
