"Clipped Wings, They Do Fly" Mr. William Michael Barbee
This novel tells the story of a young Billy Ray Michaels who's been diagnosed with Multiple Personality Disorders. The story details the life of Billy, showing how he grows from an adventurous youth to him ending up in court for a crime in which he doesn't remember committing. With over 20 years of collected writings, the author delicately weaves his personal collection of poetry into the mental struggles of Billy Ray. The character's relationship with women especially the dealings with his Psychiatrist and his Mother, really allows the reader to understand the emotions built up within Billy's heart and his connection with his pets illustrates his bond and longing for family.
