Have you ever let a magazine define your body image or tell you how you should look? Ever stared into the mirror and thought, "I hate my body"? Have you given a guy the power to decide whether or not you matter?

You're not the only one. So many young women suffer from insecurity and poor body image. When you look to anything?or anyone?other than God for a picture of your self-worth, you'll see a distorted reflection. Former professional model Jennifer Strickland knows all too well the despair young women experience when they allow the world to define their body image. Being treated like a plastic mannequin left her wondering where on earth to turn for her true reflection.

Now, in a new version of her acclaimed book Beautiful Lies, Jennifer Strickland tells you that when you turn away from the mirrors of the world and look into the never-changing mirror of the Word, your beauty, purpose, and identity become crystal clear. You are God's beloved daughter, designed to reflect His image.
