Mexico City is a sprawling metropolis and the third-largest city in the world. The vast urban expanse is intimidating at first, but the STREETWISE® map of Mexico City brings forward the city's high points, like El Zócalo and Zona Rosa, for you the traveler.

One must see is the Museo Nacional de Anthropologia located in Chapultepec Park. Thousands of rare artifacts from Mesoamerican civilizations are displayed here and you can spend a day absorbing history and culture at this important museum. Move on to more modern artists like Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo whose home and museum can be found on our inset map of Coyoacan. The Metro Map inset makes it easy to travel to Coyoacan, where you can roam the pleasant streets of this district at your leisure.

The main map, complete with street, site and hotel index, enables you to explore all the areas that make this a complex and vivid Latin capital. The STREETWISE® Mexico City map will enable you to travel from your hotel up and down the Paseo de la Reforma and over to the Plaza de la Constitutión with its gigantic state flag waving in front of the Palacio Nacional. Don't forget the Aztec ruins located in the center of the city. Think you can handle more of Mexico? Plan further excursions using the map of Mexico we provide for the curious and intrepid.
