Mature Young Adult Romance

Alexandra doesn't want to be dragged over to her mom's friends place- but when she gets there she can't believe her eyes.

She never paid much attention to the media but she recognises Hayden Smith- and she can't help but wonder how she never realized he was her childhood best friend.
It's been years since they saw each other, and even longer since they were close. But the last time they saw each other it ended with them in bed, and him not saying goodbye before leaving.

But when Hayden asks her out, she knows she should say no but she doesn't. She knows it's no good, but she takes the risk anyway. Is he only looking for another hot fuck? Or are there still feelings between them from when they were kids?
As the night progresses the one night stand seems a lot less important, and Alexandra becomes worried about Hayden's recent past.

Hayden came home to get away from it all. He didn't know if he could face Alex after what he'd done to her, but when his mother invites her over without telling him, he gives it his best shot. And it's obvious to him that he still cares about her- despite his issues Hayden wants her.
