poesia para oir (Spanish Edition) VARIOUS Great poetry is characterized for inferring emotions into the language of literature. In addition, there are occasions in which poems contain interesting plots that, even though they are not directly seen, they come to the heart and to the mind. An anthology of poems that grow when they are listened to are contained in this Audiobook where the irony of Reir llorando, alternates with the pessimism of Siquiera se murieron los abuelos and the sophisticated humor of La farsa de los pingüinos peripatéticos. Included are also Nocturnos de Silva, El triste homenaje al torero Ignacio Sánchez Mejía from García Lorca and another series of big poems that have in common the fact that they are made no only to read but to hear.
