You're The Daddy We Wanted: A father's story about adoption Gavin Andres
An adoptive father’s perspective on the challenging and uplifting process of adopting two gorgeous, but traumatised children. Covering the rigours of the adoption assessment process, being linked with a prospective son and daughter, and the fateful first meeting of the new family unit, “You’re The Daddy We Wanted” focuses primarily on the first two years of the adoption experience. Andres writes in an engaging and refreshingly honest way, as he explains and explores how the bonds of attachment form slowly between the children and their new parents. In parts witty and in others heartbreakingly sad, this book provides a rare male insight into being an adoptive parent.
