Termination Determinators (A Jaguar Beault Thriller) (Volume 2) John Thom
Here is the latest Jaguar Beault Thriller, so wrap up warm against the San Francisco fog and come along with the famous shamus as he collides with assassins, yes, “termination determinators,” who lay claim to a spate of slayings. These assassins prove…they…well, let’s just put it this way, they are elusive. Jaguar Beault, San Francisco’s private eye extraordinaire, who unraveled that strange statue fracas re-told in The Madagascar Pigeon, once again is mired in mystery up against loaded guns and edgy people. Beault calls on his growing circle of friends to help him rid the city of these opportunistic for-hire hoodlums. It’s not easy even when things get comical. Crime capers can be funny, remember, and a sense of humor is advised. Oh yeah, you will also learn about the changes in Jaguar Beault’s life since he dictated his comic exploits in The Madagascar Pigeon.
