Sun God Ra traces 5th dynasty Pharaoh's 2500 BC; so preceed Koran by more than 3,000 years. Ra or known as Horus of Falcon head translates God to be monothesist of totality or be above or supervise creation. The myth states Ra God of sun, light and magic. Ra transits night to a barge and reenter the sun. Horus is known as the living or leading entity; whose son like sons of Ra were named Pharaohs. Find art of classical Egyptian Ra and Horus; such as view art of manifest sun and see paradox of lesser deck to a giant ship. Horus upon death was known as Osiris or God of the underworld. The cover is Ra; who was one of five cat, and was Manx without genetics to form a tail. The essay provides scans of my aged and yellowing Koran, and include entirety of Table of Contents; while to be easy reading twice and more readily translated of one religion set of symbols. It reviews similar of a coloring book, and is only 1/3 length of Bible. The final 5 Chapters read no more than mere paragraphs. Scan of my 1889 Oxford King James Bible are found comparison. Islam was 3 millennium later given Archangel Gabriel to Mohammed; although name Mohammed is not given of Koran, and to be called 'The Prophet'. The essay retains prohibiting direct portrayal; although provide rendition in art to 'keep our world clean', 'duck' and drawing book of 'Dinosaurs'. The myth of Ra is portrayed of Archaics; so require millennium to evolve language. Several Chapter describe 'Dawn' or 'Daybreak'; such as sad conduct of ranks attempting climb of ladders in sin. The basis of an one God compare Chapters of Joseph to distribute wheat as slave and Abraham to lead onto all the stars of the heavens. Paradox of a sun God as a slavery to the mind is found, and compared to principles to develop economy. A portrayal about developing anger to scenario is excellent reading. A consideration of law and terrorism assesses intent to free Sheba or the Dawn; while cite direct experience at instead torturing the lady. First hand story of mutilated Iraqi lady are provided; including prosecution of Saudi terrorists, and various notes are included of international police organization to heal her by my miracle. Find many of my cases to do currency investigation; including work to negotiate Arab cultures to sell petroleum. You find agreement at symbols, and not always discover translated language. Assorted frontline experience include Iraq and Afghanistan of our military forces. Other experiences provide differences of criminal prosecution at actual violence of law and to differ to ability to describe philosophy to be fought about. The essay describes phenomenon of logos to write story from such entities. They trace more extensive telling of Gospel of John to be 'the word of God'; so quote Koran of Mary and John to source this to Jesus.
