Preschool book: "Little Chicken's Big Christmas": A bedtime story (Christmas Story Picture Book for baby) Christmas book for children ages 6-8: Children's book:A Christmas Bedtime Story-Good Values Katie Davis, Jerry Davis

The true meaning of Christmas for children.

Excellent for early and intermediate readers or for a bedtime read aloud with friends and family. Little Chicken is anxious for Christmas to come, but not because he’s thinking of presents he will get, but one he’s going to give. Little Chicken’s Big Christmas is a delightful and surprising twist on the notion that it’s better to give than receive. Little ones and their grown ups will love sharing this during the holidays.

"I hear you cluckin', Big Chicken!" That's the simple refrain that Little Chicken repeats to his mama throughout a typical day. But Little Chicken is distracted by Christmas . . . Now he asks, "When is Christmas?" and "Is it Christmas yet?" and "Is it Christmas today?" Does he have the gimmes or is there something surprisingly sweet that Little Chicken wants to do on Christmas morning?

With subtlety and humor, this sweet little story sweeps through a wide range emotions using the simplest of language.
