How many times have you felt that your life, as you were living it till now, has come to an end? How many times have you felt that you cannot come out of the morass that you find yourself in? How many times have you felt that you are all alone in this big wide world and there is no one to help you? This book tells you how to deal with such situations. Situations which you look upon as insurmountable tragedies. Yet, nothing in life is insurmountable. All you need is to do is re-look at life, re-adjust your focus, gather your courage, harness your capabilities and you are ready to fly again. This book will tell exactly how to do that through fifteen steps. Remember, each step is important in your battle to rejuvenate yourself. These fifteen steps have evolved out of battles fought by many people who have narrated their struggles. In the end, no one can help you beyond a point. You have to help yourself. It's not easy, but it's not impossible either.
