13 Ways of Looking at a Blackbird James D. Jordan
What would you do if you knew the plane you are in is going to crash? And you knew in advance how it will happen? Upon take-off, travel writer Paul Thurber suddenly finds himself receiving revelations about the destiny of his Miami-Rio flight, facts about the other people on the plane, as well as warnings from a mysterious Being who speaks sporadically through the other passengers. Paul finds himself in the hottest seat imaginable, having to choose between being seen as a liar, or a lunatic, or the one person who can save the passengers and crew of flight 1220. As his predictions start to come true, a response is demanded from the pilots and crew. Their reaction opens up a whole new danger; Paul may have made matters worse. The result is a perilous, unpredictable, and surprisingly spiritual roller-coaster ride through the stormy skies over Brazil.
