The Italian Rose (Volume 1) Christina R Mitchell
In a small city, Northeast of Milan, at the end of WWII, Rosario Beretta gazes over the rolling hills of his vineyard. Twenty-five years ago, he would have never believed how grand his life had become. Fate shifted enough for the love of his life, Sofia, to escape an arranged marriage, allowing the passionate couple a chance to wed. With Sofia's hand came the acres sprawling before him, the best wine, six wonderful children and a wealth beyond his dreams. Yes, life was almost perfect, until Rosario decides to expand his business. Don Salvatore, the most powerful man in Brusnengo, Italy, sits in his courtyard, feeding pigeons and grumbling about what is not his. Jealousy and anger brew a bitter tea and nothing will satisfy him except to take Beretta Vineyards under his control. In order for The Don to own the estate, he must kill Rosario and those who stand in the way. An outright attack of such a righteous and humble man would cause the town to revolt against him. The Don laments the situation until fortune brings a ghost from the past to his door. The new alliance provides Don Salvatore an alternate plan of destruction to secure the treasured When powerful men collide, blood is spilled and families are crushed. In a chess match for victory, the Beretta family will be tested beyond imagination. From passionate sex to graphic murders, The Italian Rose is a roller coaster of events that tear them apart. This Five-Star, Epic Family Saga will have you wishing the evil banished and virtuous revived.
