Mail Order Marriage (Grace Church Book 2) Jan Holly
{While Mail Order Marriage is the second novel in the Grace Church series, it can be read in any order.}

She was afraid all the time now. It was on a stormy night, huddled in her rented room, that she realized not a second passed in which she was not terribly afraid. She understood the danger she was in. She had lived a life where her safety and comfort were considered and valued, until they were suddenly not.
She was on the other side now. What were the options for a woman in her situation? The entire day from sun up until sun down, she had sought work. At first as a governess. She had no references. Then: as a domestic – as any household help. Not only did she not have references, a quick look at her fine gloves and well-made dress, and she was not even considered for any kind of labor.

Was even God turning his back on her?

From heiress to pauper to mail order bride: Miss Annabelle Spack leaves heartbreak behind in Boston and heads west to meet her fiancé on his farm.
The long journey from coast to coast is nothing compared to the journey her heart will take when she arrives at her new home.

A sweet, old-fashioned romance about facing fears, embracing true love, and finding faith.

An Amazon #1 bestseller in Historical Christian Romance
