Note: With your purchase of The Informed Health Plan Act of 2017, author Robert Dennis will send a copy of this book to your legislator, at no cost to you. For complete details, visit www.InformedHealthPlan.com and click on "Send a Copy to your Legislator." In The Informed Health Plan Act of 2017, Dr. Robert Dennis devises a no-nonsense approach to a workable healthcare delivery plan that relies on the free market to reform America’s healthcare system. This book details a new and innovative concept in healthcare delivery that has the potential to completely restructure the current healthcare delivery system. With nearly 40 years of experience as an orthopaedic surgeon in private practice, Dr. Dennis has created a transparent, two-step plan that empowers the consumer to make informed choices that would result in an enormous cost savings. The book identifies the six key stakeholders and outlines simple yet strategic steps to implement a plan that would fundamentally restructure the current healthcare delivery system, and ensure that everyone has the medical care they need. This fully illustrated edition includes outlines and illustrative examples of how this new delivery system would work. The Informed Health Plan Act of 2017 is intended to reach a varied audience that includes healthcare legislators, healthcare experts, physicians and, perhaps most important, the consumers who have witnessed skyrocketing medical costs and an increasingly convoluted healthcare system.
