The Secret Diary of Some Crazy Ass Bitch (Northwest Passage Mysteries Book 4)

Gary Alan Hidalgo

The Secret Diary of Some Crazy Ass Bitch (Northwest Passage Mysteries Book 4) Gary Alan Hidalgo From GoodReads about the "Northwest Passage Mysteries" series:

"The mystery weaves through the books & the romance is present but neither suffers. It's more daytime soap opera than overhyped blockbuster. I'm on the third book & I'm at the annoying point where I'm nearly caught up & the author isn't writing fast enough."

Advance Reader Review:

"A SEXY, grownup Hardy Boys lost in Twin Peaks territory

Egypt, Oregon is experiencing its most tragic week with two murders, a suicide, and a shooting. Medical Examiner Dr. Dale Clark and Police Officer Lewis "Queenie" McQueen are in the thick of things as the partners in crime (fighting) and partners in life zero in on their prime suspect, debutante Suki Carlisle.

However, Suki is too busy partying it up Paris Hilton-style at the Big Gay Bar in the Sky where her victims are throwing the Bon Voyage party they didn't get when she offed them. The eye candy is uber-sweet and the drinks are to die so what's an heiress to do?

Until she comes back down to earth, a diary is found at the scene of possibly another death that may shed light into a murderer's motives and unhinged mind as well as expose a small town's dirty, little secret. Oops. We meant secrets. Plenty of them.

Northwest Passage Mysteries starts to wrap up its inaugural story arc "The Mystery of Love" as we steal a forbidden peek into "The Secret Diary of Some Crazy Ass Bitch."

You want the truth? You can't handle the truth!
