A letter from the Rev. Mr. Whitefield from Georgia, to a friend in London, shewing the fundamental error of a book, entituled The whole duty of man George Whitefield
"SINCE it has pleased God to give me a true Knowledge of the Doctrines of Grace, I have frequently thought, that next to the falling away of the Clergy from the Principles of the Reformation, the Books which are in our Church founded on the Arminian Scheme, have been the chief Cause why so many of our own Communion in particular, have built their Hopes of Salvation on a false Bottom. The Authors not only led the People Captive in their own Life Time, but also after their Death, like Simon Magus, for a long Season have bewitched the People with their Sorceries; I mean their seemingly devout, but at the Bottom Anti-Christian, Compositions."
This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
