An Uninvited Guest: Book 1

Stefan and Elena will finally have the chance to be alone, with no one to interfere. Elena has worked dutifully to ensure that Stefan detoxes from his latest relapse into his full vampire state, and she is confident that he has reached a place where he can be trusted. However under Damon's influence Elena's faith in Stefan is shaken. He forces her to witness the brutality that Stefan's vampire side can unleash. When Elena confronts Stefan, his explanation is interrupted by the presence of an old foe, a man who has come to collect.

With Stefan still weakened by his recovery, and no one else knowing about the meeting, will this be the final chapter for Stefan and Elena?
