River of Ireland (Rivers of Time Series Book 1) T. Mullen
River of Ireland tells of raucous and romantic episodes that shaped the character of these island people during the past five millennia. Fiction and fact are woven together in a series of interconnected stories set along the Shannon River that include Viking raids, the triumph of King Brian Boru, a Norman siege, a blind harper's romance, and the pursuit of a Spanish Armada captain over a wild landscape. Each story points to a mysterious location and a pivotal event that transformed the future of this island.

Chapters blend Irish history with Irish mythology and include scenes set in locations that include Dublin, Limerick, Tara, and Cashel. The history of Irish music, architecture, engineering, and culture are blended into these distinct stories.
